

In accordance with Head Start Performance Standard 1304.52(h) (1), grantee and delegate agencies must ensure that all staff, consultants, and volunteers abide by the program's standards of conduct.

EMAA Head Start Standards of Conduct:

I will respect and promote the unique identity of each child and family and refrain from stereotyping on the basis of gender, race, ethnicity, culture, religion, or disability;

I will follow program confidentiality policies concerning information about children, families, and other staff members;

I understand that no child will be left alone or unsupervised while under my care;

I will use positive methods of child guidance and will not engage in corporal punishment, emotional or physical abuse, or humiliation. I will not use methods of discipline that involve isolation, the use of food as punishment or reward, or the denial of basic needs.
